The Tiger

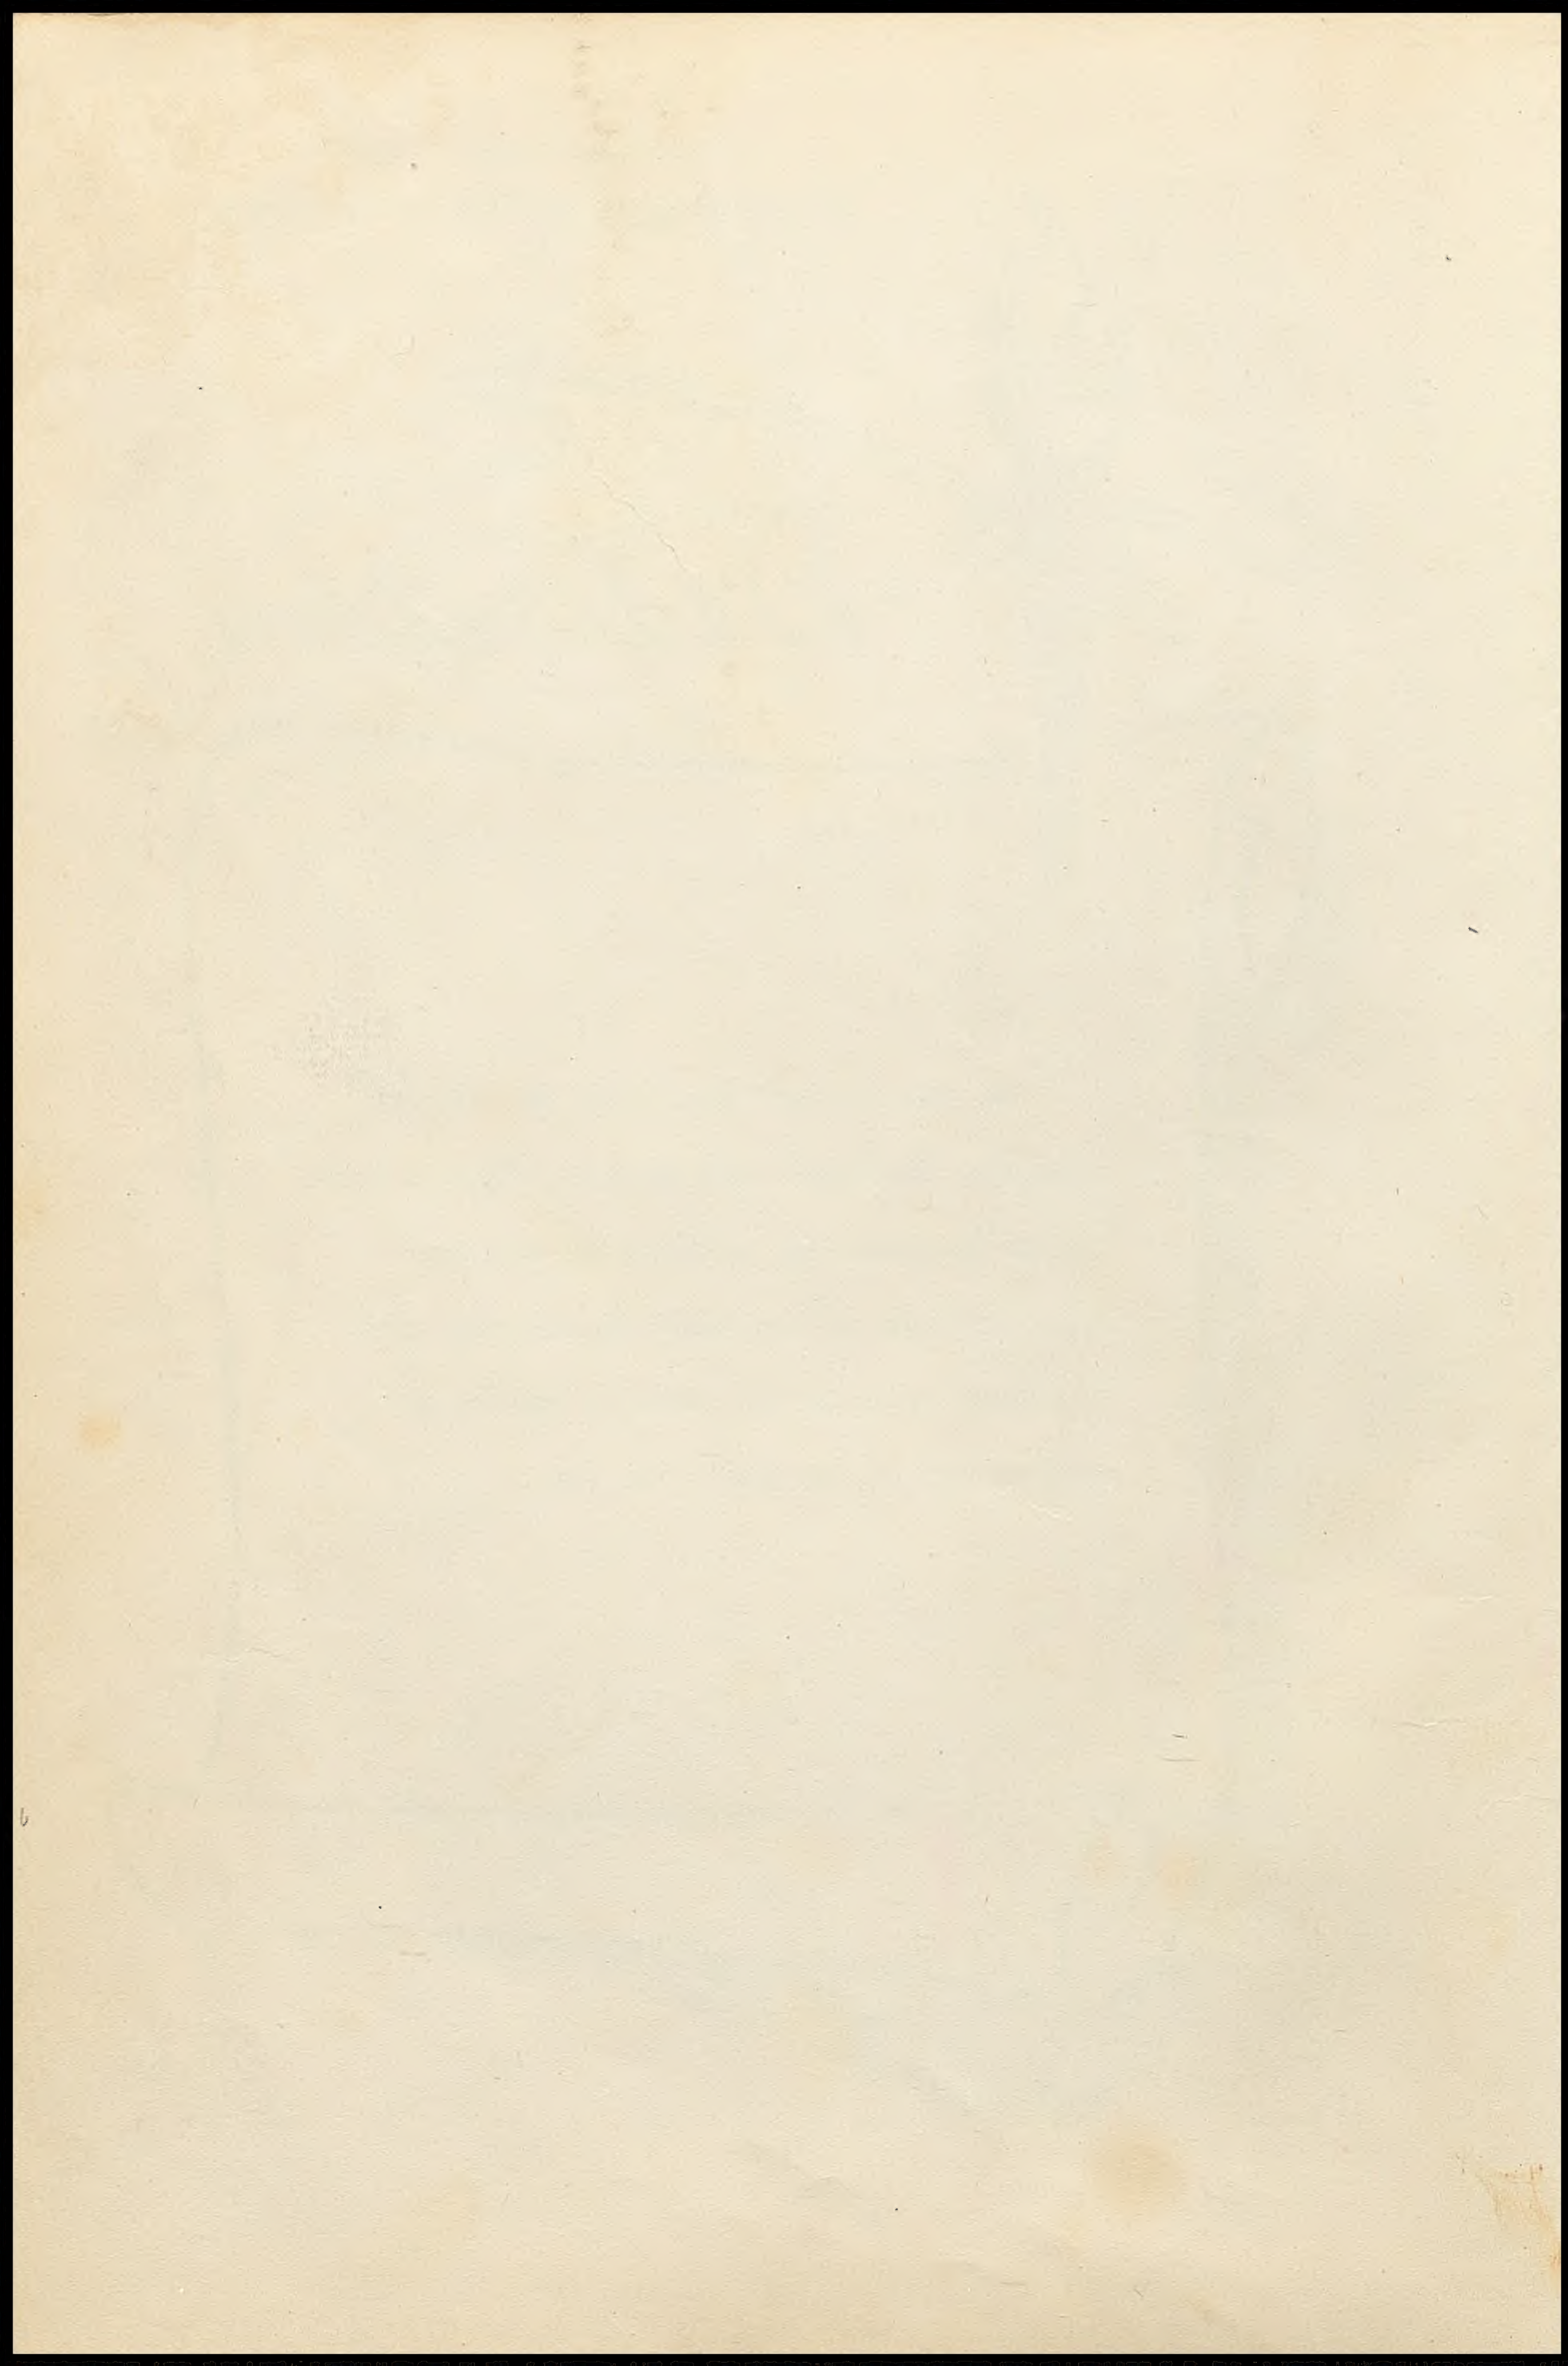

PUBLISHED BY
The Seniors of
ROFF HIGH SCHOOL
ROFF, OKLAHOMA

Dedication

We the student body and faculty of 1948-49, dedicate this annual, "The Tiger", to our parents and patrons in sincere appreciation of the many sacrifices that you have made in our behalf, and as an expression of our love for you.

FOREWORD

It is the wish of The Annual Staff of '49 that each one of you that has a copy of this book will enjoy it. If this book serves in anyway to help you recall memories of your school days spent in Roff High, the ones who planned it, will feel that such an undertaking was worth while.

As a tie that binds those who are yet to come and those who have gone before, we present THE TIGER of 1949.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Patrons and Students:

I feel that it is an honor and privilege to again be in the Roff Public Schools. I fully realize the responsibility that is mine as superintendent, and I will assure the patrons and citizens of Roff that I will do my very best to operate and maintain a good school.

To our students may I say just these few words. Make the best of this opportunity to get an education. Set your goals high and strive to reach them. Don't let anything stand in the way of your getting that which is rightfully yours: an education. Something that is necessary if democracy is to live and something that you must have in order to have the security and stability in the years ahead.

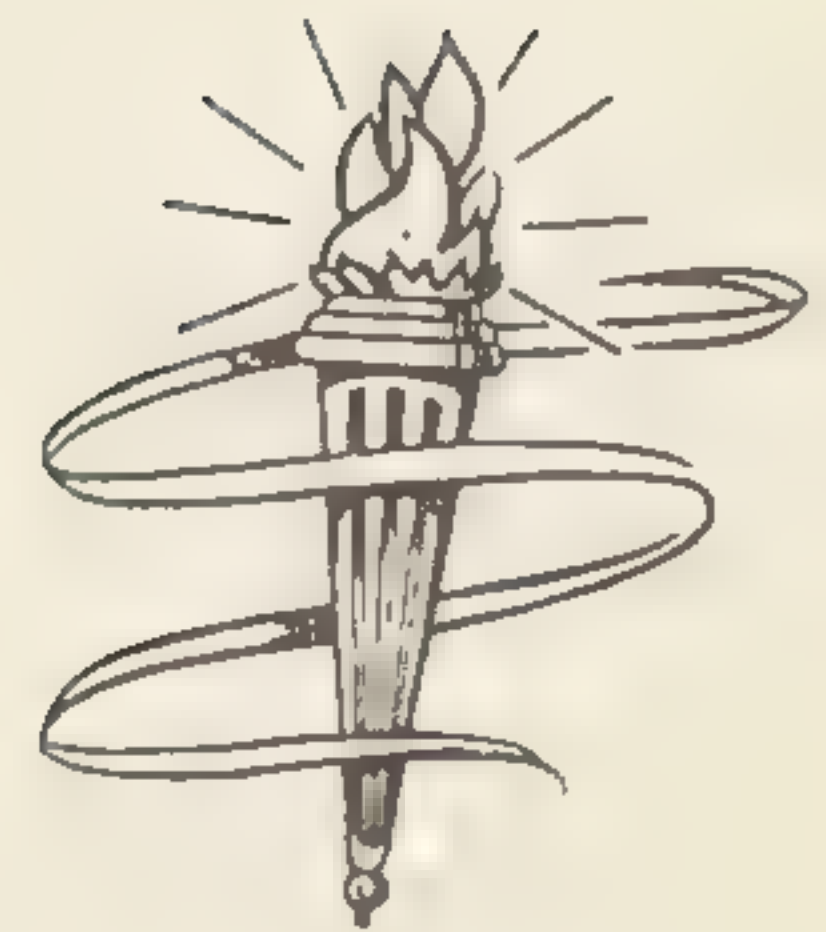

In closing may I congratulate our Senior Class, the "Tiger Staff," and Mrs. Clifton for the success of their cooperative efforts in editing and publishing this annual.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Swink

There were only two of the Seniors who began their school work at Roff. They were Stanley Roff and Ida King. Wanda Williams began her school life at Dolberg. Rocky Chapel welcomed Cora Robertson. Not far away at Fitzhugh, Gerald Brown enrolled and Mountain View was happy to have Bill York, the little blond, with them.

Eight years passed and four of the six, Stanley, Bill, Wanda, and Gerald succeeded in passing all subjects, and were participating in the graduation exercises of 1945, at Roff. Bill, the larger blond now, after years of application to his studies, was Salutatorian of his class. Many, many miles away in Arizona, Ida was also engaging in graduation exercises as Validictorian of her class. Little Cora Robertson, at Clarita was having a time keeping back tears caused by sweet memories at graduating time.

CLASS HISTORY

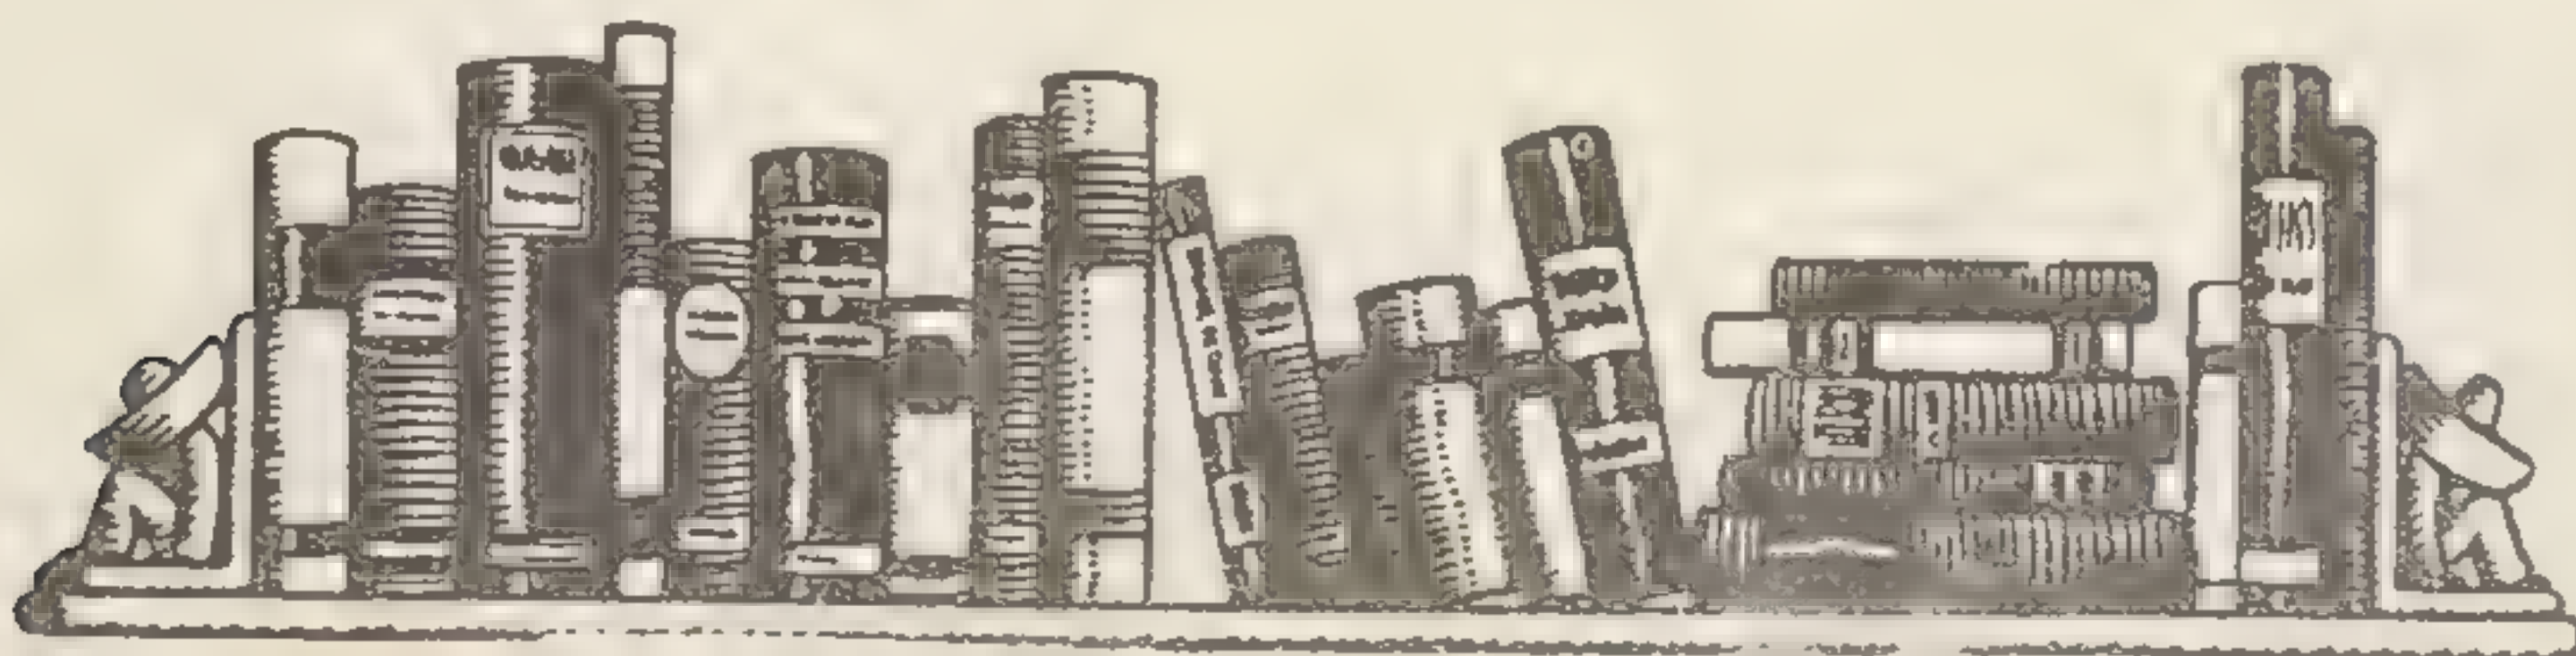

Five of the Seniors then entered Roff High as green Freshmen, Bill, Wanda, Gerald, Ida and Stanley. Having passed the eligibility test of initiations, they were accepted as ideal Freshmen, with Ida as class president and queen, Bill, secretary and Stanley as reporter. Those who showed outstanding scholarship for the year, and received awards were, Bill and Ida. Also, Bill had a perfect attendance. Though still at Clarita, Cora was also awarded a scholarship award for a period of six weeks.

When no longer Freshmen, they made the second step in their high school life as Sophomores, with Ida as vice-president, Bill, secretary and Stanley still reporter. Ida and Bill again received outstanding awards for the year, Bill making perfect attendance again.

Then as Juniors, and agreed by most of them as the best year yet in high school, the class chose Ida as secretary and class queen and Stanley continuing the reporting. For outstanding scholarship during the year Ida was awarded.

Four of the Seniors were left when finally they became Seniors. Ida had gone to Arizona. When only two six-weeks of school had passed, Cora decided to leave Clarita and move her books and school spirit to Roff. Another six-weeks of school was completed when Ida reentered at Roff to complete her Senior work. At this time for the first time the six Seniors join hands as a little but unforgettable class with Bill as class president and paper-staff editor, Wanda as vice-president and Senior class candidate for carnival queen, with Stanley still reporting. Those to be commended for outstanding work for the year were Cora, Wanda, Bill, and Ida. Rising forth out of this Senior class as Validictorian, with an outstanding record for the four years, Bill is credited. Ida is Salutatorian. The two have the record as holding the top awards in both Grade and High graduating classes.

May each choose as his aim to be gathered at a institution of learning of his choice next fall when the doors swing open.

To Whom It May Concern:

Cora Robertson wills her ability to whistle to Earlene Brookshire.

Bill York wills his sore finger to a good typing one student. (preferably Lee Roy Mapp).

Ida King wills her frost-bitten feet to Alta Menser if she promises to keep them warm.

Gerald Brown wills his unruly hair to Kenneth Bradford.

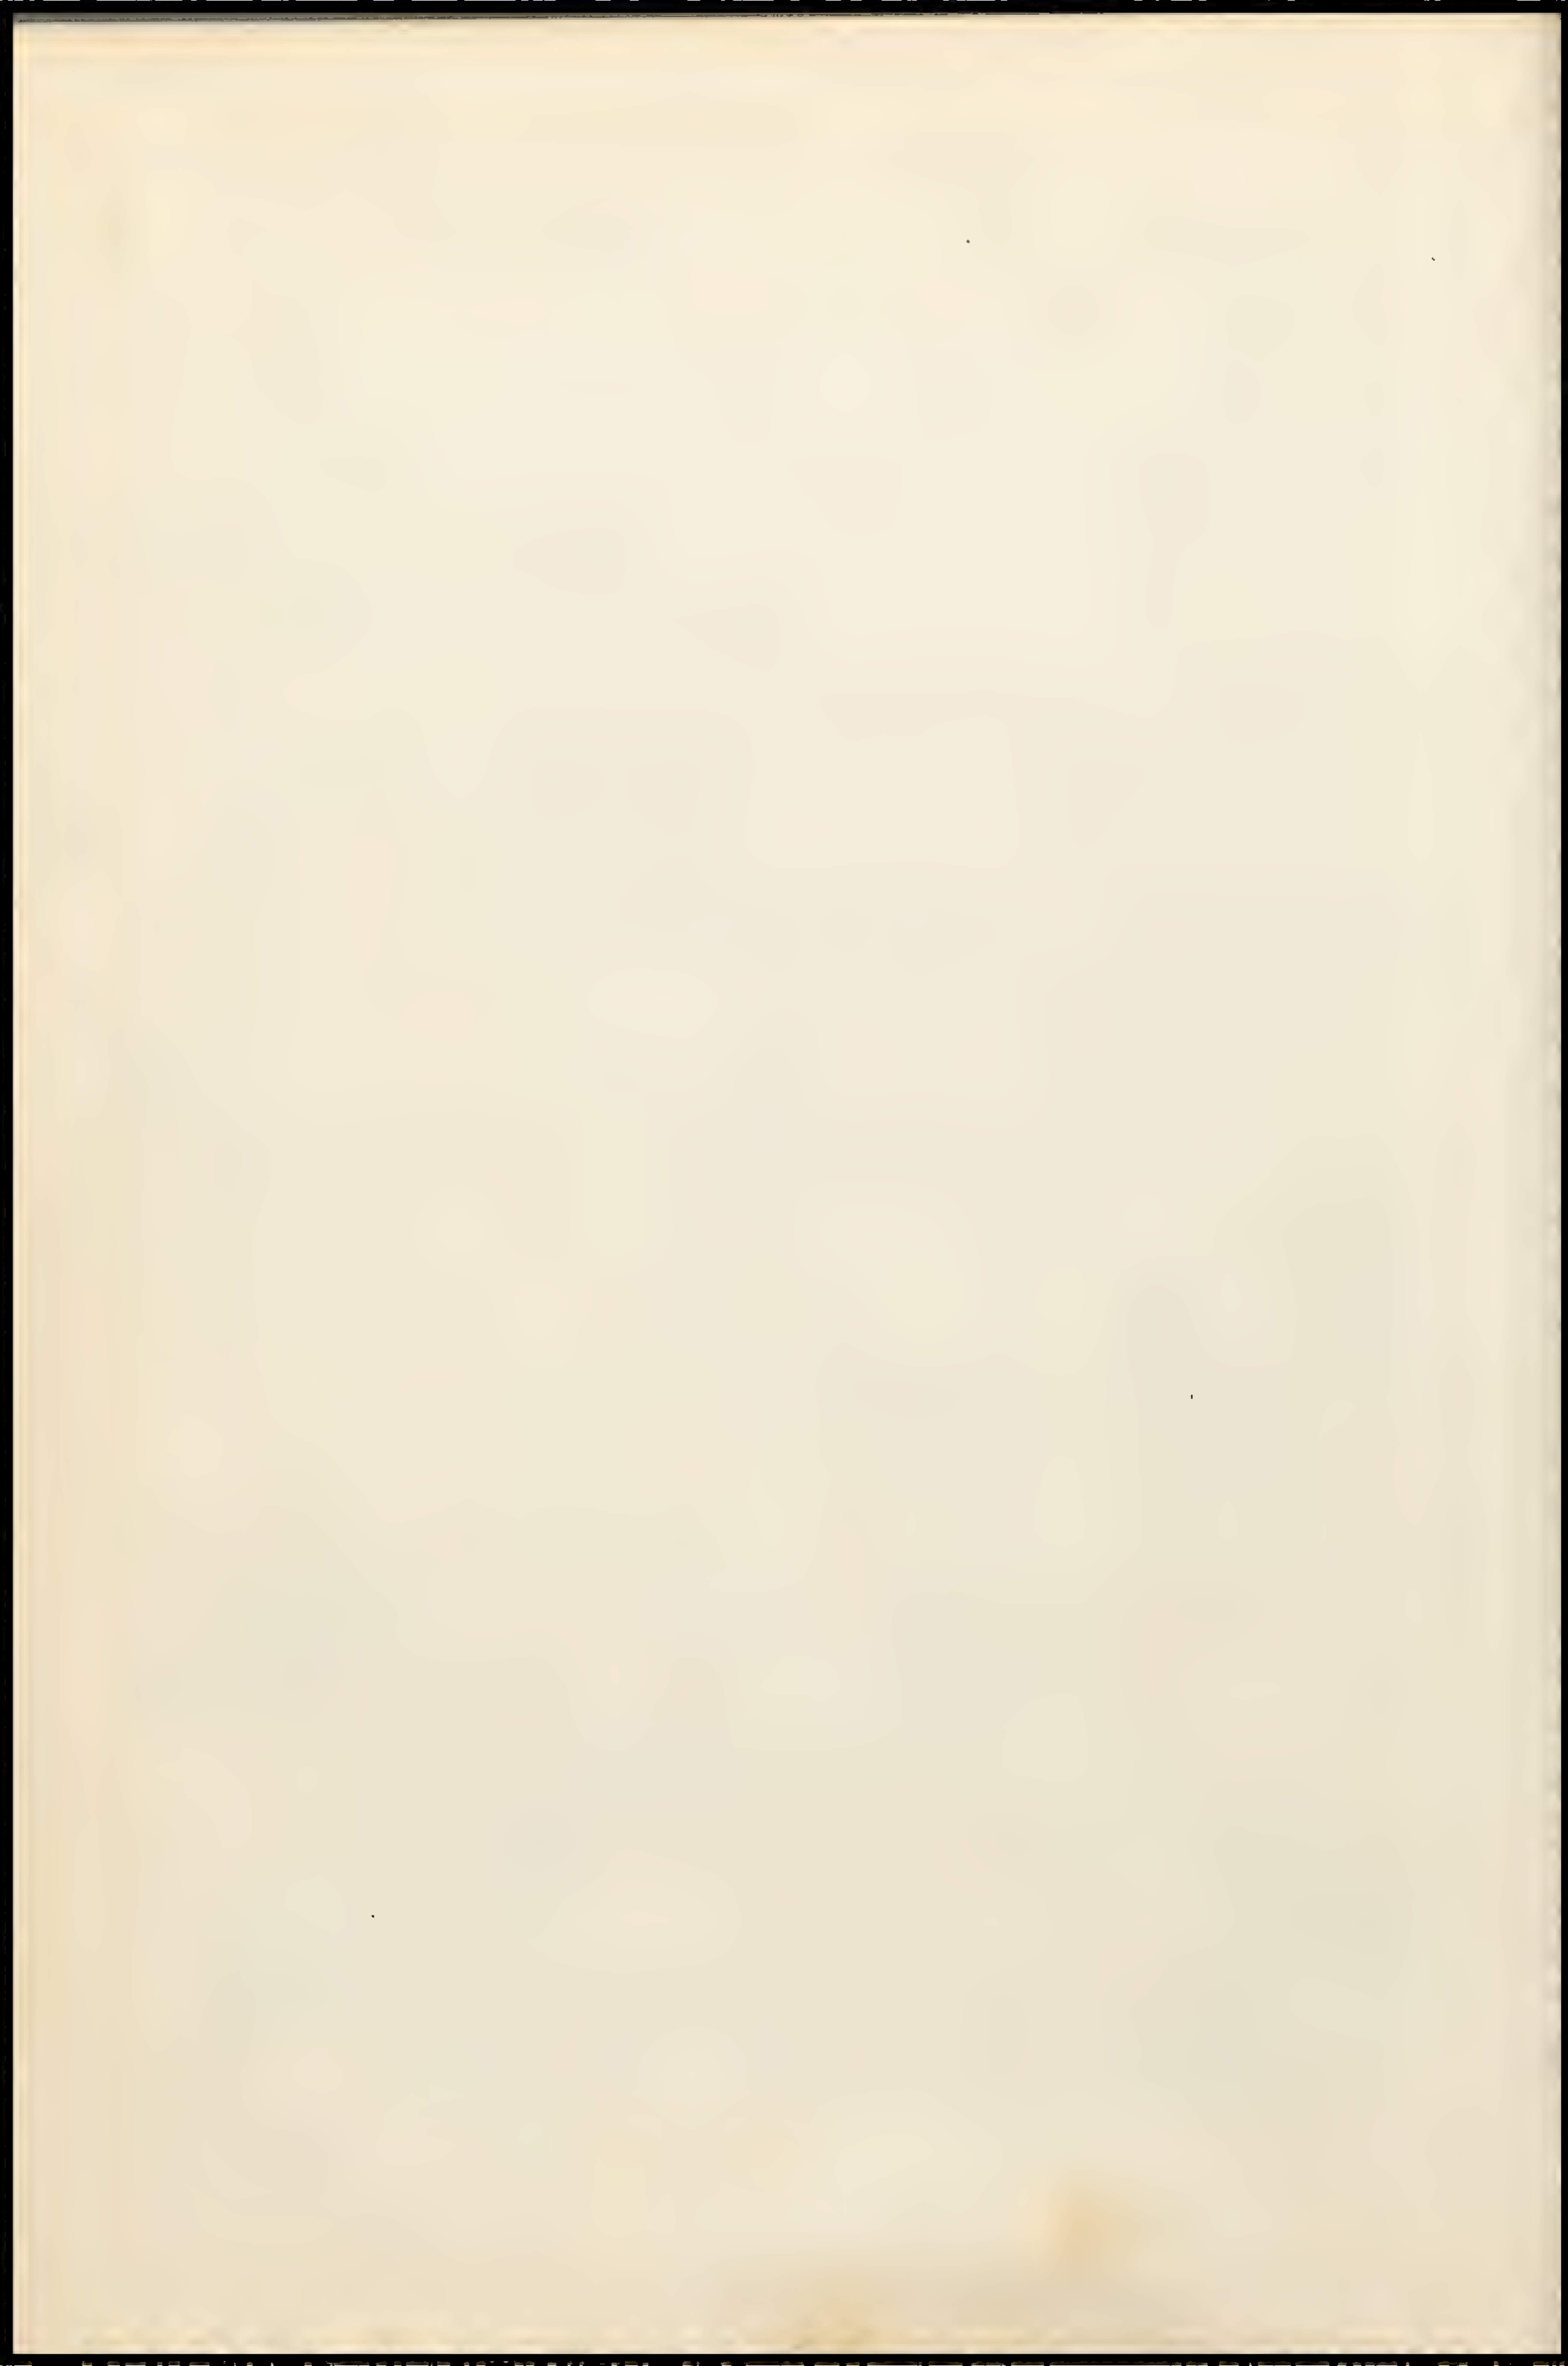

Wanda Williams wills her chewed off fingernails to Ola Faye Malloy since Wanda is about finished worrying.

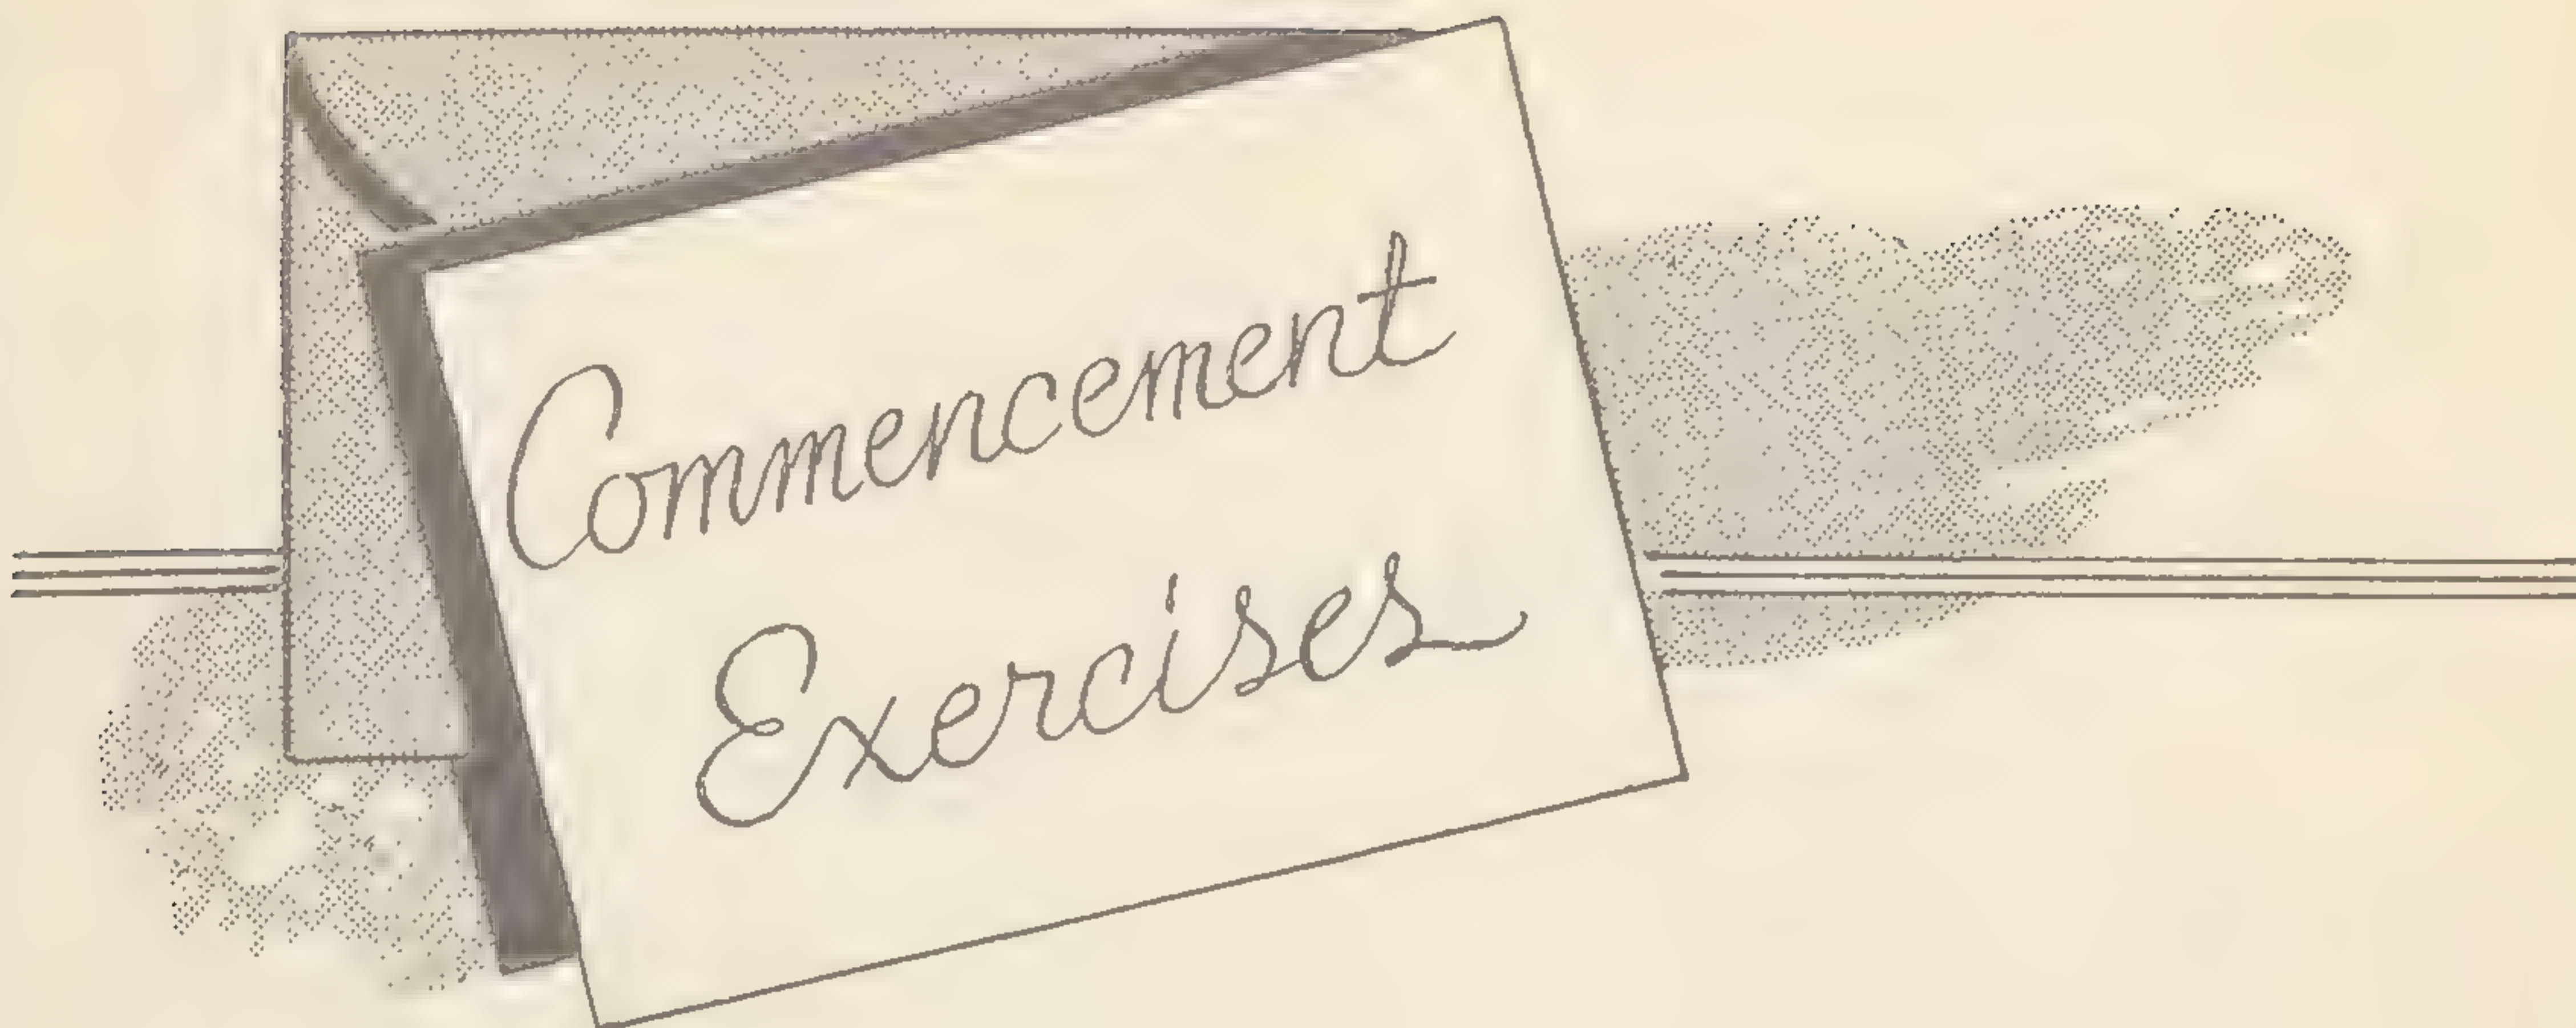

Stanley Roff wills his high-topped shoes including taps, to Gene Griffith.

7 Treasured Lessons

The reward of one duty done is the power to fulfil another.

Quiet persons often lead more useful and interesting lives than their noisy friends.

Beware not to lose your enthusiasm. Do not look backward. Progress with your age. Be hospitable to new ideas. Look ahead as though your best work were yet to be attained.

When you're forming your opinions,
Do it carefully. . go slow
Hasty judgments oft are followed
By regretting. . that, I know.
And in arguments be careful
Not too quickly to decide. .
Try to look upon the subject
From the other fellow's side.

He who sacrifices health to knowledge will find that he has in most cases sacrificed knowledge too.

Thinking! Reading! Planning! No man can climb very high in any occupation unless he has time for these three.

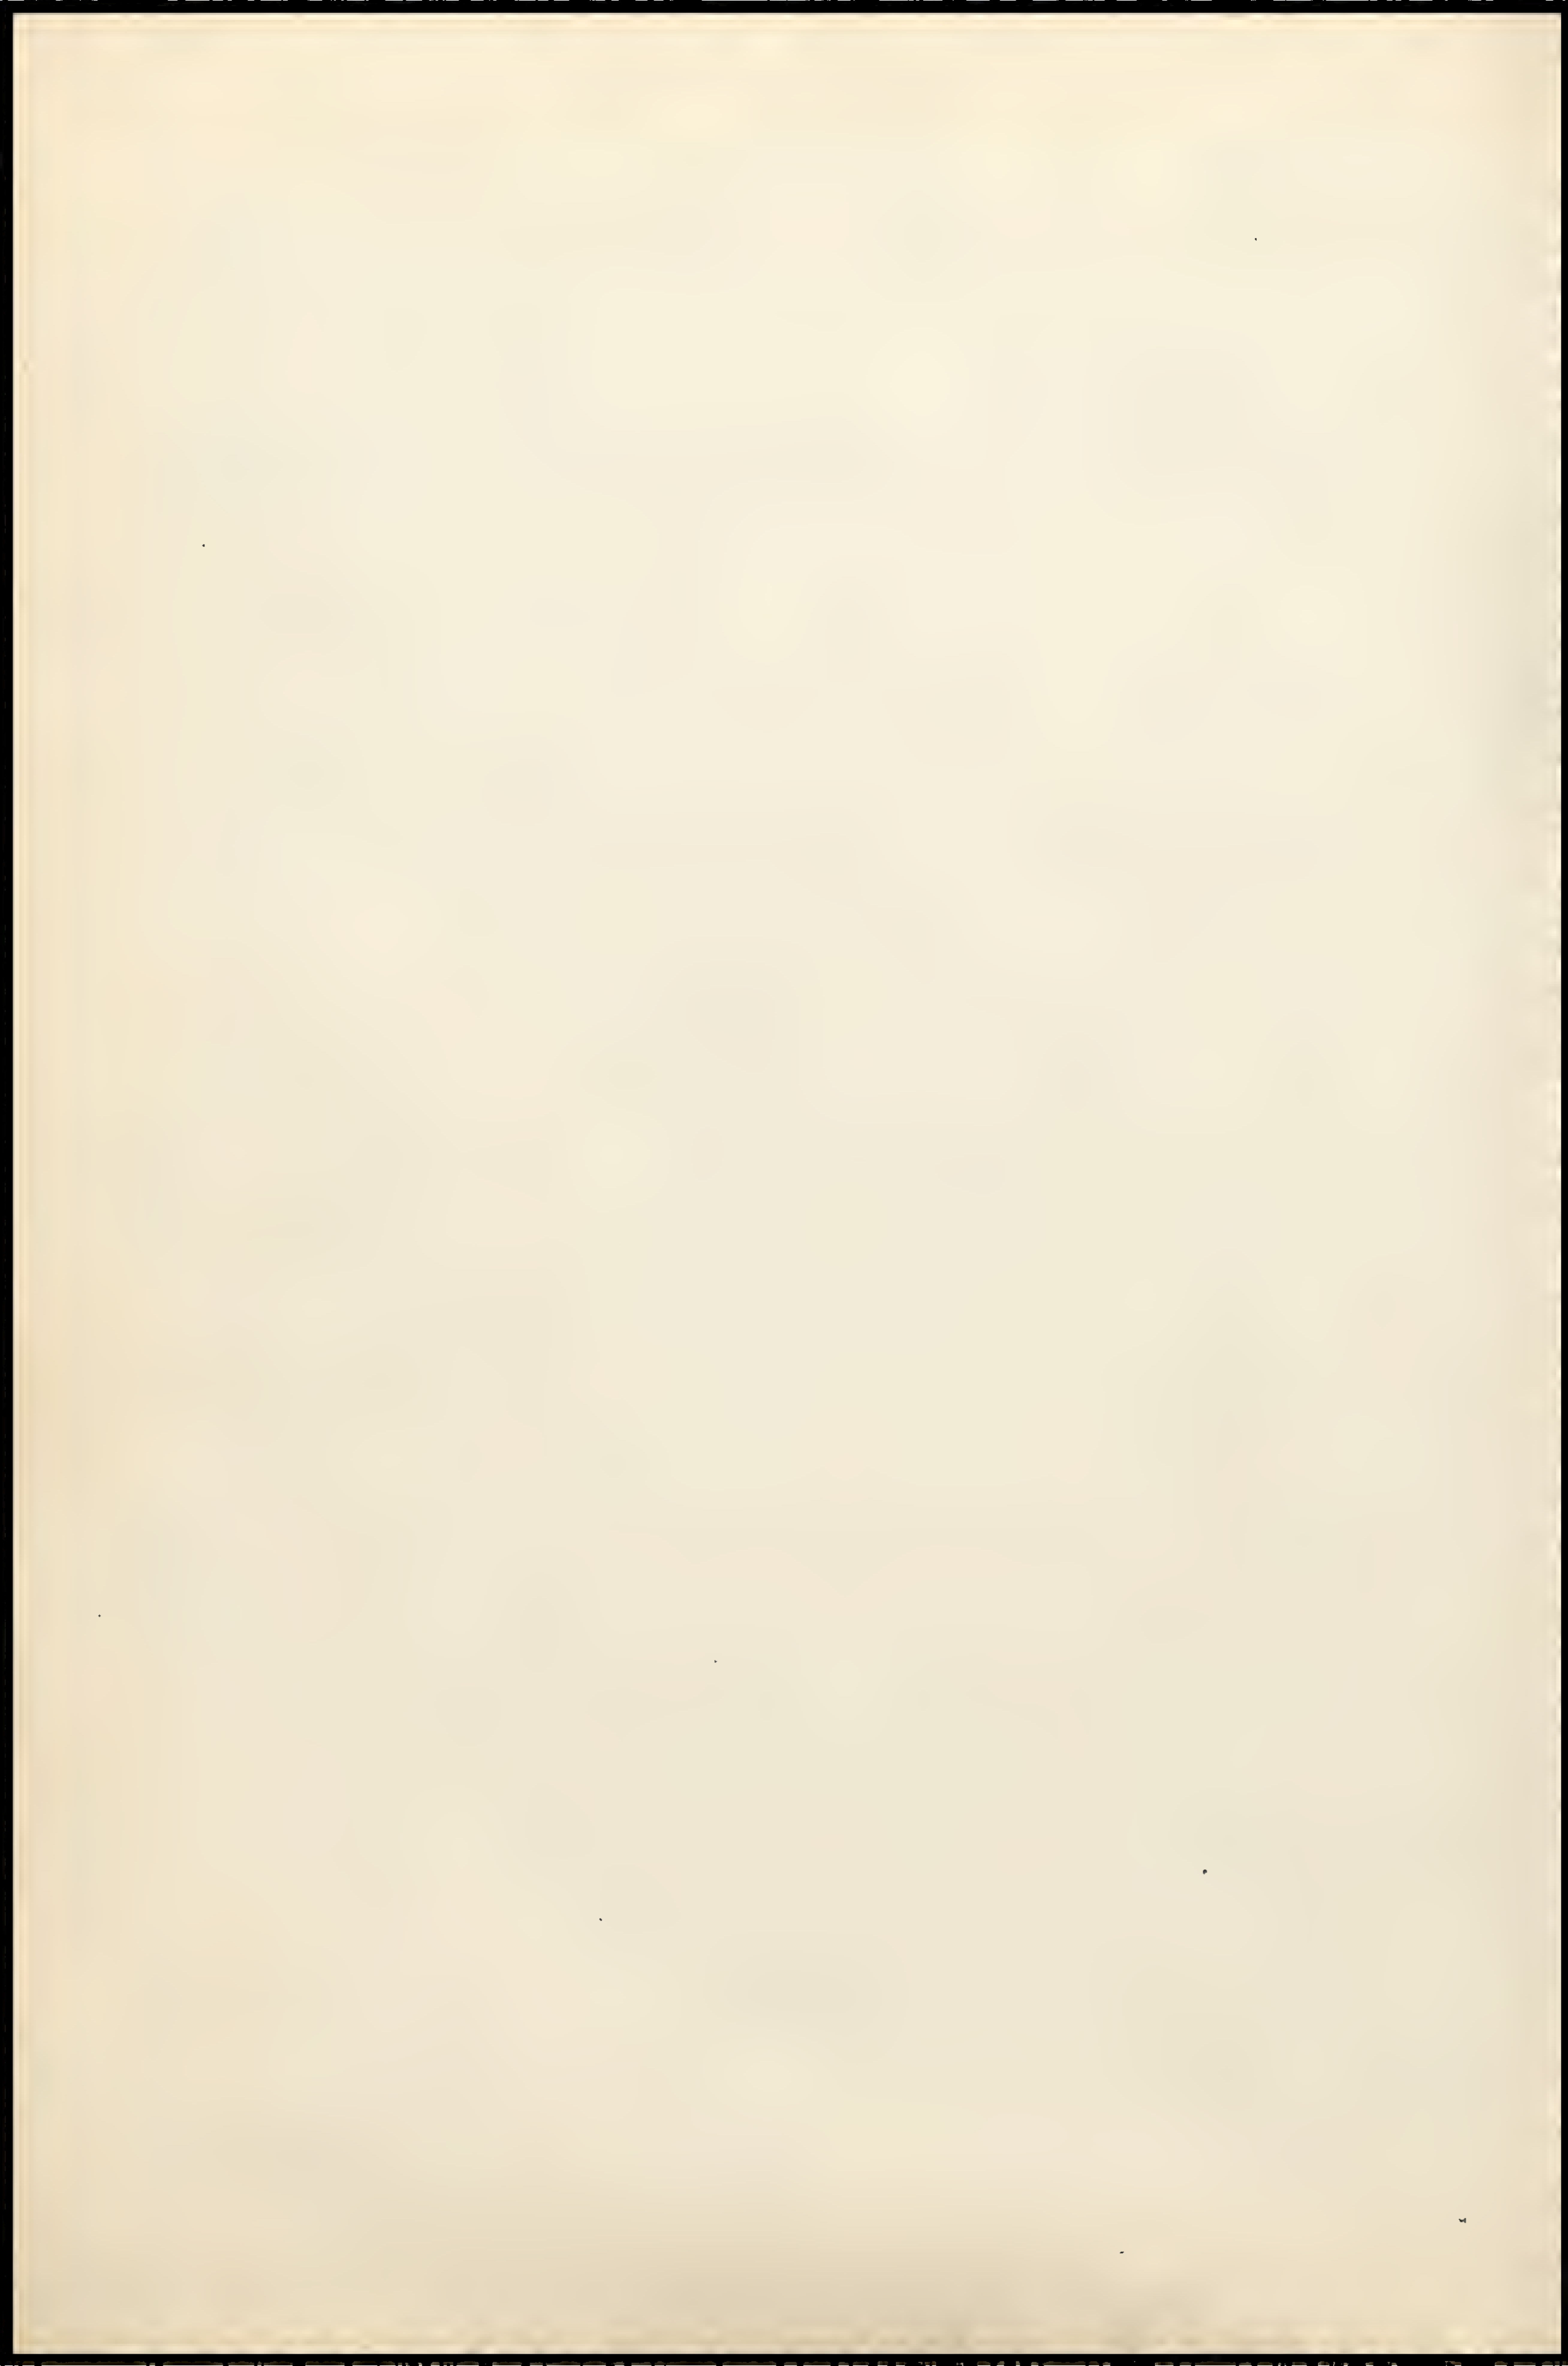

We think in words; and, when we lack fit words, we lack fit thoughts.

Honor is like the eye, which cannot suffer the least injury without damage; it is a precious stone, the price of which is lessened by the least flaw.

An ounce of courtesy is worth a pound of apology.

Kind words, like favorite flowers, are admired by all.

To the Business men whose ads appear in this book, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for the interest you have manifested in the production of this volume.

We realize that without your financial support we could not have accomplished this achievement.

We further realize that back of every movement for the betterment of our town, community and school you are responsible for the financial success in one form or another.

We sincerely hope that when we have assumed a place in the business world that we will be as willing and able to support the worth-while things as you have been.

Last, we wish to thank each and every person for their assistance in the publication of this volume. We appreciate the kind words, the friendly spirit, and your willingness to work.
